Item 8.01. Other Events.

Byhalia Pipeline LLC (the “Company”), a joint venture managed by a subsidiary of Plains All American Pipeline, announced today that it is no longer pursuing the Byhalia Connection construction project primarily due to lower U.S. oil production resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic. A spokesperson for the Company stated: “We value the relationships we’ve built through the development of this project, and appreciate those that supported the project and would have shared in its ongoing benefits including our customers, communities, energy consumers, landowners, area contractors, and suppliers.”
